DAILY GAZETTE.

The Surrender at Hartsville, Tennessee.

From the Nashville Union, December 12.

From reliable sources we are enabled to lay before our readers the circumstances connected with the surrender of the 39th brigade at Hartsville. This brigade composed of the 40th Illinois regiment, the 106th and 108th Ohio, and one section of the 18th Indiana battery, and at the time of the fight there were present about 200 of the 2d Indiana cavalry; this cavalry was no part of the brigade, but was on duty at that place. This force had been stationed at Hartsville, and the post was in charge of Col. Moore of the 104th Illinois, commanding the brigade. The enemy, consisting of three regiments of infantry, two of cavalry and five pieces of artillery, under the command of Morgan and Duke, crossed the river about daybreak, two and a half miles above Hartsville. The federal force was not surprised, as first thought, but were aware that an attack was to be made.

The fight commenced about daybreak. The 106th Ohio was ordered to support the artillery. This regiment gave way on the first fire of the enemy, and was soon followed by the 104th Illinois. The fight was then left to the 104th Illinois, the battery, and the 2d Indiana cavalry. These conducted themselves with courage; the 104th driving back the enemy two or three times, until overpowered, was compelled to surrender.

The loss of the 104th Illinois was about 60 killed and 100 wounded. The two Ohio regiments lost about 10 or 12. The 2d Indiana cavalry lost 12 or 15. The enemy's loss, in killed and wounded, was over 200, among whom was Frank Buchanan, of Wilson county, reported killed. These were all men of good standing, and had been upon the march since their organization. The enemy's reserve consisted of a number equal to the attacking force, were stationed on the opposite side of the river. After the surrender the Confederates retired from that locality, and are supposed to have gone to Murfreesboro. Col. Harlan, of the 10th
Kentucky, now commands at Hartsville.

From the Chicago Tribune.

Ye "Times" Tinker Skedaddled to Canada.

As a fitting finale to the nonsensical self perpetrated upon the Chicago Times by the plagiator of J. H. Green, we have taken a sudden flight to Canada. His departure was accelerated by the numerous letters and dispatches which were pouring in upon our citizens and the police department from all parts of the United States, charging him with various kinds of swindling, from borrowing $15 of a brother in the Methodist church, whom he had deceived as to his real character, by selling worthless drafts drawn on the treasury department at Washington. When Greene was first released from the custody of Supt. Bradley, it was upon the promise of his attorneys and of the Times' man that he should be forthcoming when wanted. Of course he will be on hand.

That the Times in the terrific howling
it made, based upon this Greene sensation, had a traitorous and unwholly object in view which is designed to carry out is universally believed. The "Times" judgment" which the Tinker's nonsensical have brought down on him, will effectually prevent the secession organ from playing the roll primarily designed for it. The Times must need the sympathy of all its sympatizers in this intense affliction, and to that end, we suppose, the conference of full-blown K. G. C.'s held in its office on Saturday afternoon, was called. Verily, the great "J. H. Green" has suddenly become, with one fell swoop, "visible" Greene.
We cannot do better, than to commend to the Times man the homely but oft-quoted adage—

"If at first you don't succeed, Try, try again."

The following is a copy of the letter, written by the chief of police at Washington, which brought the "tinker" to grief:

DEPARTMENT OF METROPOLITAN POLICE,
Office of Superintendent, Washington, D. C., Dec. 12, 1882.

My Dear Friend: * * * There is a man named "J. H. Green," about forty-five years old, five feet eleven inches high, long visage and sallow complexion, rather thin build, fine appearance and good address, who was stopping at the City Hotel, Chicago, on the 30th ultimo, with his wife (in a bore) who is a tall woman with fine teeth. Now, my dear, I know your particular antipathy to police business, but you must do me a favor in this. This man Greene has performed one of the smartest little jobs of swindling in this town I have heard of for some time—thus: He fancies a set of very costly furs—$175—purchases them from a man named Steinmetz, on the avenue, then he sends his clerk with the furs, and he gives him a check for the money. The clerk follows him to the War Department—aye, even into the Secretary's office, and in the presence of the Secretary himself, and on a sheet of paper headed "War Department," draws a draft on the Secretary of the Treasury, for the sum of $175, hands it to the clerk, who makes his exit from the august presence.
Two days afterwards the draft was presented and the clerk laughed at the man; said no such man was known there, and he had no account in the treasury, etc. Now I desire you, if you can, to ascertain if Greene and this woman are still in Chicago, and, if so, telegraph me, and I will take the necessary steps to have him arrested. The furs I have reason to believe this woman has with her.

Forever float that standard sheet—
Where Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The News.

General Burnside and his whole army have re-crossed the Rappahannock to Falmouth, and the pontoon bridges have been taken up. This movement is probably caused by the rapid rise of the river, interrupting his supplies from the opposite side of the river.

General Banks' expedition is reported to have passed Port Royal, going south.

The Milwaukee Sentinel, while daily urging Judge Doolittle as its candidate for the United States Senate, warns those who support a different candidate, "not to press their individual views too strongly, and create a division of opinion among the republican members of the Legislature, which shall enable a certain foxy democratic politician to creep into the United States Senate." This is kind and considerate. Perhaps the Sentinel might be induced to stop "pressing its individual views" on the subject, for a day or two, and give us its opinion of the conduct of certain Milwaukee republicans who exhibited their treachery in the late election. It would naturally be supposed that the true republicans of that city, if there are any, would be exceedingly anxious to wipe out the stain cast upon their good name by those Judases, by doing justice to John F. Potter, at the first opportunity. If the Sentinel is their representative, they propose to take the opposite course.

Some of the older members of the democratic party may remember the denunciation heaped upon the federal party for its opposition to the war of 1812. Do they know that their party occupies, to-day, the same position that the federalists did in those days? Sympathy for the enemies of the country is abundantly shown by the partisan hacks at this time. History will place them along with the supporters of the Hartford Convention.

CAUSE OF THE ARREST OF D. A. MAHONEY.—The Galena Advertiser says: "Mahoney, it appears, was arrested at Dubuque, on the affidavit of John L. Harvey, for saying, in the office of Wm. L. Bradley, in the presence of several other witnesses, that if he (Mahoney) should be arrested as Gen. Jones had been, by an order of Secretary Seward, that he would assassinate him."

A great amount of indignation has been exhibited by democratic editors in this state on account of Mahoney's arrest. "Do they justify him in his threats of assassination, as well as his open and undisguised sympathy with the rebels?"

BAD TESTIMONY FOR PORTER.—Gen. McDowell testified, on Saturday, in the Porter court martial, that if Porter had obeyed orders and attacked the enemy on the 29th, the rebels would have been defeated. The evidence thus far has made out a terrible case for Porter. This is the general to whom Gen. McClellan wrote a letter, three weeks previously, "for my sake," as he says, to cordially co-operate with Pope. It seems McClellan thought his "friend" was a little shaky, and needed to be urged to do his duty.

The 6th Wisconsin, Colonel Amasa Cobb, has participated in eight battles under McClellan, including White Oak Swamp and Antietam, and has suffered a total loss of 363 men. It is now in General W. F. Smith's division of Franklin's corps.

SELF-SUSTAINING.—The navy department is very nearly a self-supporting branch of the government. It is said to have realized from seizures, during the past year, about forty millions of dollars, whilst its expenditures are forty-one millions.

WINNEBAGO COUNTY ENROLLMENT.—The number of men still remaining in the county of Winnebago, Illinois, between the ages of 18 and 45, is 5,344. The number who have enlisted from that county since the war commenced, is 1,630. The city of Rockford has sent 452 men to the war, and still has 1,580 who are liable to draft.

A correspondent of the Haverhill (Mass.) Gazette, writing from Beaufort, South Carolina, November 16, asserts that two hundred guns were fired in Charleston and the city beautifully illuminated in honor of the democratic victories in New York and Pennsylvania.

A lot of teas were taken from a female smuggler at Detroit, on Saturday last. There are "grounds" for the belief that she will not suffer herself to be "teased" again in the same way.

The farmers of St. Joseph county, Mich., claim that they produce a larger quantity and better quality of peppermint oil than any other county in the United States.

Last year about 480,000 brooms were manufactured in California, valued at one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; driving the imported article entirely out of market. The raising of broom corn, and shipments of the manufactured article are increasing early.

For the Daily Gazette.
Our Public Schools.

Those who have visited our public schools, or who were present to witness the exhibition recently given by them, are aware that they are doing a good work for the youth of our city and vicinity. Yet the greater number of our adult population give but very little attention to these matters. They commit the care of our schools to the constituted authorities and have no further solicitude. This is not as it should be. Every parent who has a child to educate, has an interest in these schools which no denomination of money can adequately express. Every citizen who contributes to their support, by tax or otherwise, has also an interest in them, equal, at least, to the amount of his contribution. Every person who expects to live in a community where the youth are constantly advancing to position and influence in social life, has an interest in them in proportion to the value of good and intelligent society. Therefore, all have an interest in them which should be realized and manifested.

The educational facilities of any people, made effectual by public sympathy and co-operation, determines, to a large degree, the civil and social positions which their children are destined to occupy. It is a favor to any child to be privileged to spend its youth under their benign and nourishing influences; a favor for whose loss no fortune which subsequent life may realize, can yield an adequate compensation. Education is as leave to the public mind. Soul growth is its legitimate fruit.

The recent exhibitions referred to reflect much credit upon our board of education, and also upon those who have served as teachers under them. The diction of the pupils was admirable. Their voices were strong and of good volume, and their utterances were for the most part very clear and distinct. There was also due deliberation in progress; so that the hearer was not obliged to apply the spur to his own mind to receive each uttered thought. In fine, their elocution was highly complimentary to their teachers, as well as to themselves. These remarks are designed for the young ladies no less than for the young gentlemen.

The programme of exercises is, however, subject to this criticism, that too much time was devoted to dialogues. Dialogues and colloquies should be thrown in to change the order and give variety; but they should not be allowed to occupy a prominent place, nor to consume much time. We do not expect our sons and daughters to be actors upon the stage in a technical sense; but we do desire that they may produce many noble specimens of composition, and be able to utter their thoughts in the hearing of their fellow-men with power and with acceptance. This is said with a view to suggest and not to condemn.

The singing done by the pupils, and by the ladies and gentlemen who generously gave their services for the occasion, all under the direction of Mr. Wilson, was rich and often soul-stirring. Master Addy sang "Grafted into the Army" with very happy effect.

Why should not music receive more attention in our schools? Why should it not be made an elementary branch of education, so that all our children shall be taught to sing and when they are taught to read? It may not be as useful in business as reading, but it will add much to individual and social enjoyment.

The board are doing well; the teachers have labored faithfully and successfully, and our children are receiving the benefits. Let us all cherish these schools by our favor; let us visit them, speak a word for them, and so contribute of our influence to build up a generation to our praise.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From North Carolina.

CAMP STEVENSON.

NEWBERN, N. C., Dec. 6, 1862.

Editors' Gazette: Life in the barracks furnishes little of interest. Newspaper readers look for great expeditions and great battles, caring little for the monotonous routine of duties in the school of the soldier. It is daily drill—the bugle-blast—the fifes' shrill note and drum-beat's din, are dull music in times like these. A great battle, events which will furnish material for a volume of history, are thought of but for a day. We forget what is passed, and look only for those things which are before, "the great and sanguinary conflicts hourly expected."

The pledges of the people to sustain the policy of the administration; the threats of democrats to thwart it; even success at the polls may be counted as nothing in comparison with the victory which we have a right to expect from our army, which alone can let in light.

The Newbern Progress, of Nov. 29th, has an editorial urging the Union men of North Carolina to move at once in the matter of sending representatives to congress. It says: "Send in your petitions at once to the governor, who stands ready, we are warranted in saying, to designate a day of election. If you wish to escape the penalties of the confiscation and emancipation acts, no time is to be lost."

The soldiers who have marched through the eastern part of North Carolina cannot help smiling at the mention of such numbers of loyal men. A toast, offered by Co. F of the 44th Mass., at their entertainment Thanksgiving day, places the matter in the right light: "The Union men of North Carolina, the lustre of whose patriotism is reflected by the beauty of the land they inhabit." The toastmaster stated that no response was expected. The cheer sang:

"Old Grimes is dead, that good old man,
We never shall see him more."

Thanksgiving was a jolly day in camp. By order of Maj. Gen. Foster, there were no drills. Those who could procure shot-guns were permitted to go duck-hunting. Several companies of the 44th got up splendid dinners. The tables of Co. F looked homelike indeed. Real "crockery" took the place of Uncle Sam's tinware, and the luxuries which many expected to enjoy only in imagination appeared in reality.

In the evening there were entertainments consisting of tableaux, toasts, speechifying, declamation, singing, dancing, &c. We tried hard to forget that we were in camp, but it was a somewhat difficult task. "The loved ones at home," "The girls we left behind us," were among the toasts of Co. D.

We are under strict military discipline—drill full five hours a day. There is now quite a large force at Newbern. Eight new regiments from Massachusetts are here. Many are yet in tents. Barracks are being constructed as fast as material can be obtained. Present appearances indicate that we may expect active operations rather than the quiet of winter quarters. My present position gives me the privilege of going about the city of Newbern. A more thorough acquaintance with the city does not alter my first impression. There is an air of desolation and gloom about it which can be felt. Many of the buildings are old and in a dilapidated condition. The former inhabitants have nearly all left. Those who remain scarcely ever appear on the street. I pass through the city every day, but do not meet one officer than once a week. Specimens of the "poor white trash" from the country occasionally come into the city to sell their tar. They are long, lean, lank, ragged, dirty specimens of humanity. They drive an old lame and blind horse or mule yoked to a two-wheeled cart. The whole establishment would do credit to a fourth of July procession of the "horribles" or "odds and ends."

This poor, despised, class are underlings to the blacks. They have less vitality, energy and enterprise; and yet their condition is typical of the whole physical aspect of the land they live in. God has blessed New England and the great west, but has cursed the south; the curse is written all over it in letters so big and black that he who runs may read. In the east and west are intelligence and industry; here ignorance is established by law, and honest labor despised. I have made some observations in reference to the condition of the negroes here—have visited one of their schools in Newbern—but it would make too long a letter to write of them now.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—P. M. Mr. Blair has rescinded all the orders heretofore made excluding from the post offices and mails of the United States, certain newspapers presented by grand juries, and otherwise represented as disloyal to the government.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.

A Fort Monroe letter, of the 14th inst., says: Plymouth, North Carolina, had been destroyed by fire, but by what division of the federal army is not known.

A scouting party from Suffolk had a skirmish, on Friday, at James' Ford, and captured two rebel officers and fifteen privates.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.

Mr. Essenden, from the committee on finance, reported back a bill concerning the judgments in the suits brought by the United States, with the recommendation that the amendment of the house be disagreed to. The recommendation of the committee was adopted. He presented a letter from Mr. Pierce, of Maryland, asking to be excused from further service on the committee of finance.

The Vice President appointed Mr. Rice, of Mr. Wilson, to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Collamer offered a resolution requesting the President, if not inconsistent with the public interests, to transmit to the senate the report and accompanying documents of Hon. Beverly Johnson, as commissioner of the United States during last summer, at New Orleans. Adopted.

Mr. Collamer presented the credentials of Hon. Solomon Foot, re-elected senator from Vermont.

Mr. Davis offered a resolution, that after it had become manifest that an insurrection against the United States was being broken out, in several states, James Buchanan, then President, from sympathy with the conspirators and their treasonable projects, failed to take the necessary and proper measures to prevent it, therefore, he should receive the censure and condemnation of the senate, and the American people. Laid over.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC.

Dec. 14.—11.30 A. M.

There is no fog to-day. The sun is shining brightly, with a strong breeze. At daylight this morning there was a heavy fire of artillery and infantry in front of the first line of works, where Generals Sumner and Hooker were engaged yesterday. The firing slackened about an hour afterwards, and is heard only at intervals until now.

The same occurred in Franklin's division down the river. The object of both parties was evidently to feel the other.

During last night and this forenoon the rebels have considerably extended their works and strengthened their positions. Large bodies of troops are now to be seen where but few were to be discovered yesterday.

Those killed yesterday while charging the enemy's works, remain where they fell. When attempting their removal last night, the rebels opened fire with infantry, but the wounded have all been removed from the field, and all the dead obtained are now being buried.

The indications are that no battle will be fought to-day, unless the rebels bring on the engagement, which they will not probably do.

FREDERICKSBURG, Dec. 13.

Herold's special. It is ascertained beyond doubt that the rebel force is nearly 200,000.

Jackson commands the rebel right, extending from Gen. Smith's Station to Port Royal. Longstreet has the center, extending from Gen. Smith's Station to the telegraph road. Lee and Stewart are on the left.

Additional surgeons and everything the necessities of the wounded require have been dispatched from Washington.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 14.

A special dispatch to the Commercial from Nashville, says that the Murfreesboro Banner (rebel) of Saturday announces that Jeff Davis arrived there on Friday. He reviews Hardee's division at Nolansville tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.

Gentlemen in high public positions repeat the assertion as coming from General Burnside, that he has men enough, and therefore desires no further reinforcements. The sanitary committee sent a vessel to-day to Aquia Creek, with surgeons, nurses and hospital stores for the wounded in the recent battle.

KNOXVILLE, Dec. 11.

President (?) Davis made a speech here this morning. He thinks the terrorism of East Tennessee exaggerated.

Gov. Brown, of Georgia, acting under authority of the legislature of that state, has seized from three to four hundred thousand dollars' worth of goods in Augusta, for the use of the soldiers, to be paid for, or consigned at reasonable rates. It has caused great excitement.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.

Demetrius advances state that intelligence has been received of a serious commotion in Surinam, caused by an insurrection among the slaves.

The total amount raised in this city, to date, for the Lancashire (England) operatives is $100,000.

The custom house returns show $900,000 worth of guns imported this week.

The brig Keokuk reports that, on the 12th, lat. 33° 16', long. 12° 40', she ran through an immense mass of boxes, with some small pieces of board resembling the bulwarks of a vessel, gangway stage, etc. These boxes extended six or seven miles, literally covering the water. She picked up a new cork fender, and fifteen boxes of army bread, apparently not more than ten or fifteen hours in the water. They were marked "United States Subsistence Department," and "Union Mechanical Bakery Co. N. Y."

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.

The Commercial's circular from Japan the 25th of October, says a revolution has taken place in that government, but of what character the published reports do not make clear. The assumed power of the Tycoon is greatly restricted, and the policy adopted is adverse to the foreign interest.

Mr. Richardson, an English merchant, had been assassinated by the servants of a Japanese Prince.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.

Last night about 8 o'clock, rebel cavalry under Major White, about 350 strong, made a raid into Poolsville, Md. They found twenty-five of Sickles' men quartered in a wooden building. After a brief but determined struggle, and when the building was on fire, Lieut. Smith and seventeen men surrendered, and were paroled. On our side the loss was Sergt. Stiles killed, and Lieut. Smith and Sergt. Berry. The rebels lost two killed and thirteen wounded. The rebels took everything valuable from the men they paroled, and stripped the body of Sergt. Stiles.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 15.

Special to Herald.—According to the rebel Banner, Jeff Davis has arrived at Murfreesboro, and is in quest of Mr. Manly. The rebels have recaptured Franklin. The enemy seem to be moving up. Forest is not at Charlotte, but there is a heavy force at Nolansville and Triune.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.

Specials this morning contain nothing from Fredericksburg not in the associated press dispatches of last night. The whole number killed, wounded and missing in Franklin's grand division is 5,932.

The Washington Intelligencer, of yesterday, says the engagement, contrary to what appears to have been the general expectation, was not resumed yesterday. The enemy was occupied in extending and strengthening his works, and our army was taking care of its wounded and burying such of its dead as could be recovered from the battle field. Burnside was reinforced during the day by General Sigel's corps. He unquestionably had good reason for delaying an attack upon the enemy's line.

Special to Times.—It appears that the paymaster's department is able to procure only about $800,000 per day for soldiers' wages, while the demand is $4,000,000. This fact is owing to the inability of manufacturers to supply them, and accounts for the injury done the soldiers.

The following dispatch was received by the President at 4 o'clock Sunday morning:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

December 11.

We have carried the first line of the enemy's works, opposite the town, and three miles below, and hope to gain the crest of the hill to-day. Thus far in killed and wounded is estimated at about 5,000.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec. 14.

Southern papers say that Gen. Foster's force is designed to co-operate with the Yankees at Suffolk against Richmond, either by a direct advance upon Petersburg, or by attempting to seize our railroad communications at Weldon.

RICHMOND, Dec. 9.

Gen. Morgan attacked an outpost of the enemy's at Hartsville, on the Cumberland river, yesterday, killing, wounding and capturing 1800 prisoners, two pieces of artillery, and 2000 small arms. Our loss was 225 killed and wounded. The day previous, a small foraging party was captured by Gen. Seolour, near Nashville, with 50 prisoners.

MONTELE, Dec. 9.

Twenty-five federal prisoners, taken near Coffeeville, yesterday, were brought in to-day. Cars running from Grand Junction to Holly Springs, and telegraph working.

The Richmond Examiner says that the preparations of the United States to subjugate the south are now truly gigantic, in the east, west and north. On land and water everywhere, and on all sides the movements of the federal army and fleet indicate a zeal, a hope, a fanaticism, a desperate avidity, that should banish from every southerner, mind all thought of an early peace, and nerve every loyal southern hand for a battle, in which there will be no quarter. Northern Virginia is again overrun; Richmond, Petersburg, Weldon, Charleston and Mobile are once more threatened; Texas, undefended, lies hopelessly and bleeding in the power of the enemy; forces are being prepared in the west and Kansas for the invasion of Arkansas; communication between the west and Richmond is menaced at Chattanooga and Knoxville, and the Mississippi and its tributaries are bristling with gunboats for operation as soon as the floods come.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.

Mordecai Motley was nominated to the senate to-day as principal clerk of the general land office, and J. Whitney, of Wis., as Indian agent for Colorado territory.

that North Carolina may accept President Lincoln's policy of compensated emancipation.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.

The following has just been received: FALMOUTH, Dec. 16.—8.45 A. M. Raining fast. River rising rapidly. Our troops all on this side of the river, and pontoons up.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.

The Tribune has a special from Nashville giving an account of the violation of a flag of truce on the Murfreesboro turnpike, by which 63 of Capt. Ables' command, of the 4th Michigan, were captured. A scout from Murfreesboro reports that he heard Jeff Davis and Polk speak there on Friday. Davis declared that Tennessee must be held at all hazards. Polk said he expected Grant would be defeated, then Nashville would be assailed.

Our informant says the rebels will fight us between Tullahoma and Winchester. There are about 40,000 rebels between Murfreesboro and Nashville. Forest, with three regiments of cavalry, left Manchester Thursday to cross the Cumberland river below Nashville to cut our railroad. Morgan was married yesterday. Moves with 5000 men to attack the railroad at another point. Five men of the Chicago Board of Trade regiment were captured Saturday.

Hovak.—The speaker presented a message from the President relating to three awards, late the property of Gen. Twigg, taken by Gen. Butler. The message was referred to the committee on military affairs.

Mr. Stevens moved that his resolution, assigned for consideration to-day, be postponed to this day three weeks.

On motion of Mr. Cox, resolved, that the secretary of the treasury be directed to furnish a statement of the amount of United States loan created in 1861, and extended, April 16th, 1862, which falls due the present year, and the names of the owners thereof, and other information relating thereto.

Mr. Wyckoff submitted a substitute that all opposed to the war on principles of the constitution as it is, and the Union as it was, are enemies to the country, and unfit to hold offices of trust or profit.

Mr. Vallandigham's resolutions, offered during the first week of the session, were again read.

Mr. Stevens' motion was agreed to.

JANESVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Winter Term of the Public Schools of the City of Jansville will commence on the first Monday of January, 1863, and continue fourteen weeks. No student pupil will be admitted on the usual terms on application to the undersigned. Furthermore, the Board of Education would say that in their judgment the High School under the supervision of Mr. S. T. Lockwood as principal, offers advantages superior to any other school in this section of the state in consequence of rooms, perfection in classification; experience of teachers and ample course of instruction. The Board will spare no efforts to make the schools pleasant and profitable to all who may patronize them.

Winter Term of the Public Schools

The winter term of the public schools of this city will commence on the first Monday of January. These schools are under the care of competent and faithful teachers, and offer not only to the youth of the city but to those from abroad who desire their advan-tages, excellent opportunities for a prac-tical and thorough education. The duties and instruction of the school room are promptly aided by an efficient board of ed-ucation, whose general management and attention to their duties contribute largely to the prosperity and usefulness of the var-ious departments under their supervision.

Sabbath School Festival.

The Sabbath school of the Baptist church and the mission school connected therewith will hold their annual festival at Lapping's Hall, on Wednesday evening, 17th inst., with appropriate exercises and supper.

The occasion will be made one of inter-est, the exercises being interspersed with music by the band of the Blind Institute, singing by the children and the recitation of a few humorous pieces by Prof. McAf-ferty. Supper will be served at 9 o'clock. Tickets of admission, 10c. Supper 25c.

The proceeds of the festival will be de-voted to the building of a chapel for the mission school, now commenced, on the east side of the river, the object being to reach a class of children not now brought under the influence of religious instruction, and we would cordially invite the co-operation and patronage of the public. Every-thing will be done to make this a pleasant season of social enjoyment, and we hope to see a full house. Doors open at 6 o'clock.

Volunteer Aid Fund.

The volunteers, and their families and friends generally, will be interested in the following circular just issued by the secre-tary of state and state treasurer:

To the Wives and Families of Wisconsin Volunteers:
Believing that many of you are re-strained from sending in your applications for the extra pay promised to you by the state under the impression that the money in the fund is exhausted, we deem it proper to state to you the following facts:
1st. In consequence of the neglect on the part of the officers of some of the reg-iments to make out the reports required by law, the families belonging to these non-reporting regiments are unable to draw the money due to them; and as quite a number of the regiments are delinquent in their re-ports—some of them never having even furnished the list of those entitled to extra pay—the money, which in other circum-stances would have been paid to these fam-ilies, remains in the treasury unclaimed.
2d. We are informed by the quarter-master general that arrangements have been made by which claims against the war fund, amounting in the aggregate to over fifty thousand dollars, have been paid direct by the United States authorities. As the state has made provisions for the payment of these claims it leaves a large amount that can be put to the credit of the volunteer aid fund.

3d. Gov. Salomon has procured from Washington, on advance made by the state, some forty thousand dollars more than had been calculated upon, by placing this amount in the treasury to be used in the payment of the claims of the families of the volunteers.
By reason of the facts above stated, the money in the fund is still unexhausted, and we hope to be able to continue the payment of all applications until some time in Jan-uary, and possibly longer.

JAMES T. LEWIS, Sec'y of State.
SAM'L D. HASTINGS, State Treas.

It is announced that James G. Bennett is to retire from the New York Herald on the first of January. The management of the concern is expected to devolve on his son, J. G. B., Jr.

The Chicago Times says there is a great scarcity of houses for rent in that city, and that rents are going up, and houses most im-possible to be procured at any price.
